PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE ON REFORMED THEOLOGY

P&R Publishing has been a supporter of PCRT since its inception in 1974. The purpose of the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals' existence is to call the church, amidst a dying culture, to repent of its worldliness, to recover and confess the truth of God's Word as did the Reformers, and to see that truth embodied in doctrine, worship, and life.

As a Christian publisher solidly committed to the Reformed faith, P&R reflects this mission in our call to publish excellent books that promote biblical understanding and godly living as summarized in The Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms.

This year's conference seeks to strengthen the church's witness by upholding the sacred in a secular world—and only by knowing God can we truly identify what is sacred. P&R is proud to release The Triune God, a look at the three persons of the Trinity and how they affect our witness, our Christian life, and the world around us—a perfect resource for getting closer to the source of everything sacred.

We are proud to support the work of PCRT and trust that this conference will help bring you closer to our triune God.

GENERAL INFORMATION

We warmly welcome you to this forty-first meeting of the Philadelphia Conference on Reformed Theology (founded in 1974). If you have arrived late and have not yet registered, you may do so at the registration table in the narthex. It will be open following the Friday night meeting and Saturday morning before the all-day session.

There will be refreshments in the fellowship hall during registration, coffee breaks, and following the service on Friday evening to assist us in getting to know one another. Lunch will be served in the fellowship hall for those that pre-ordered a meal.

The Conference bookstore is located in rooms 143 and 144.

Audio recordings of the conference can be ordered at the audio table in the narthex. Free shipping is available for those orders placed during the conference.

Music for the conference has been provided by Westminster Brass (James Hala, director); Redeemer University College Concert Choir (Christiaan Teeuwsen, director); Ryan Kelly, organ; Proclamation Chancel Choir (Jonathan Moser, director); Andrea Broido, soprano.

The final services of the 2014 conference coincide with the Sunday morning worship services of Proclamation Presbyterian Church at 11:00 a.m. Richard Phillips will be speaking on Revelation 7:9-18, "The Holy Bride of Christ."

The PCRT is partially supported by the sales of recordings of our events, therefore audio and video recording is strictly prohibited during any part of this event without prior written consent from the Alliance and Proclamation Presbyterian Church. Thank you for your stewardship toward this ministry.

"My first experience at a PCRT was a taste of heaven, an appetizer to whet my appetite for the feast Dr. Boice now enjoys every day." — R.C. Sproul

You can find the following titles and many more at the conference bookstore in rooms 143 & 144:

John Calvin, a man adored by some and maligned by others, stands as a legendary figure in Christian history. In Calvin on the Christian Life, professor Michael Horton offers us fresh insights into the Reformer's personal piety and practical theology by allowing Calvin to speak in his own words.

Drawing not only from his Institutes and biblical commentaries, but also from lesser-known tracts, treatises, and letters, this book will deepen your understanding of Calvin's theology and ministry.

The Reformed Expository Commentaries focus on the narrative flow of each biblical book, proceeding section-by-section. They draw out significant points or theological emphases in the text, and then apply them to the daily life of the Christian.

What would God say about those who blatantly misrepresent His Holy Spirit; who exchange true worship for chaotic fits of mindless ecstasy; who replace the biblical gospel with vain illusions of health and wealth; who claim to prophesy in His name yet speak errors; and who sell false hope to desperate people for millions of dollars?

In Strange Fire, bestselling author and pastor John MacArthur chronicles the unsavory history behind the modern Charismatic movement. He lays out a chilling case for rejecting its false prophets, speaking out against their errors, showing true reverence to the Holy Spirit, and above all clinging to the Bible as the inerrant, authoritative Word of God and the one true standard by which all truth claims must be tested.

Present this coupon to receive $5 off when you spend $50 or more in the bookstore.

Witness

Spiritual/arr. J. Halloran

Who'll be a witness for my Lord? Oh I'll be a witness for my Lord.

There was a man of the Pharisees, his name was Nicodemus and he didn't believe.

The same came to Christ by night, wanted to be taught out of human sight.

Nicodemus was a man who desired to know how a man can be born when he is old.

Christ told Nicodemus as a friend: "Man you must be born again."

He said: "Marvel not, man, if you want to be wise, repent, believe and be baptized."

Then you'll be a witness for my Lord, soul is a witness for my Lord.

You read about Samson, from his birth he was the strongest man that ever lived on earth.

Way back yonder in ancient times he killed ten thousand of the Philistines. Then old Samson went a wand'rin' about. Samson's strength was never found out.

'Till his wife sat upon his knee. She said: "Tell me where your strength lies, if you please!"

Samson's wife, she talk so fair Samson said: "Cut off my hair! Shave my head just as clean as your hand, and my strength will come like a natural man."

Samson was a witness for my Lord, soul is a witness for my Lord.

There's another witness for my Lord!

My soul is a witness for my Lord.

O How Amiable (Psalm 84)

R. Vaughan Williams

O how amiable are Thy dwellings: Thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and a longing to enter into the courts of the Lord:
My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house,
And the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:
Even the altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be always praising Thee.
The glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us:
Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us.
O prosper Thou our handywork.

Hear my prayer, O God, incline Thine ear!
Thyself from my petition do not hide.
Take heed to me! Hear how in prayer I mourn to Thee,
Without Thee all is dark, I have no guide.
The enemy shouteth; the godless come fast!
Iniquity, hatred, upon me they cast!
The wicked oppress me, ah where shall I fly?
Perplexed and bewildered, O God, hear my cry!
My heart is sorely pained, within my breast,
My soul with deathly terror is oppressed,
Trembling and fearfulness upon me fall,
With horror overwhelmed, Lord, hear me call,
O for the wings, for the wings of a dove!
Far away, far away would I rove!
In the wilderness build me a nest,
And remain there for ever at rest.

Join the Alliance

The Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals is a coalition of pastors, scholars, and churchmen who hold the historic creeds and confessions of the Reformed faith and who proclaim biblical doctrine in order to foster a Reformed awakening in today's Church.

The Alliance encourages Christians to band together for the defense of doctrine, the fostering of reformation, and the glory of God.

Individuals can join the Alliance by becoming a Friend of the Alliance. Friends of the Alliance are committed and faithful partners in proclaiming the truths of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They enable the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals to call the church to a modern reformation. You can join us in working to reform the church of our day with a monthly gift of just $25.

Churches may join the Alliance by becoming a subscribing and/or supporting church. These churches not only continue to benefit from scriptural teaching but also help others in their church, town, across the country, and — with our website — around the world, to hear the Word and respond.

All members stand on the mission and vision of the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals. They do this in order to proclaim the Gospel, to hold up the Bible, to defend the great doctrines, to stand in the Church, and to band together.

If you would like more information about joining the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals please stop by the information table or visit our web site at AllianceNet.org
