PCRT 2015- Grand Rapids and Philadelphia:

Holiness and Honor: A Reformed View of Sex and Marriage

This year, the 2015 PCRT will explore the goodness of God's design for marriage, a biblical view of gender, the beauty and blessing of sexuality, the significance of holiness through sexual purity, and the relationship between the love union of marriage and the love-bond of salvation between the Church and its Savior, Jesus Christ. We anticipate a highly informative, edifying, and biblically inspiring PCRT on a most relevant of themes for today. We hope you'll attend. Get details or register now: AllianceNet.org/Events.

Newly Published: The Shepherd Who Would Be King, Richard Phillips

The Shepherd Who Would Be King chronicles the career of David, one of the best-known figures in the Bible, from his humble origins as a shepherd boy to his slaying of the giant Goliath, to his triumphant crowning success as king of Israel. David's story is that of a career executive. In it, Richard Phillips sees reflected the trials and triumphs that mark our own lives in today's business world and the fashioning of a leader. It will challenge and equip men and women to raise their aspirations and heighten the impact of their leadership. Available March 2015 from ReformedResources.org.

Coming in May 2015- Pentecost and the Work of the Spirit Today, The 2015 B.B. Warfield Memorial Lecture Series, Oklahoma City

What happened on Pentecost? What are the implications of what took place on Pentecost for the Church today? What expectations ought Christians to have for the work of the Holy Spirit in their own lives and the lives of others? Christians today continue to be divided, sometimes deeply, over the answers to these questions. Join Richard Gaffin in Oklahoma City, May 29-30. Additional details are available at AllianceNet.org/Events.

Things We Wouldn't Want You to Miss ...

"The past lives with us and we must live with the past. The only way we can do that is to learn about that past and think about it in our present." – Bruce Gordon, Yale University, on the relevance of Church history. Hear it on, Theology on the Go - PlaceforTruth.org.

When asked by Carl Trueman what needs he thinks a pastor most frequently must deal with in a church, Pastor Francis VanDelden responded, "Marriages, and sexual sin/internet pornography." What advice does he give? "Work hard not to live in the darkness. Talk to other people. Get in the Word. Be in prayer. Memorize the Word. Does that really help with porn? Yes, because you're thinking more about Christ. The more you see Him, and view Him as wonderful, it begins to change the heart from seeking satisfaction in something like porn." Hear the full interview at MortificationofSpin.org.

"So often those who care the most about success make the least effort." – Scott Redd in the article, "Avoiding a Spirit of Lethargy (Part 1)," at ChristwardCollective.org.

"And when He drew near and saw the city, He wept over it..."

Have you ever wondered how the Lord must weep over the state of the Church today? The mission of the Alliance is to bring together people like yourself to foster a Reformed awakening in today's Church. From the media teaching of men like James Boice and Philip Ryken to engaging podcasts like Mortification of Spin and Theology on the Go, to conferences on Reformed theology that challenge and encourage and convict, the Alliance is seeing results. Thank you for your support; please continue. Visit: AllianceNet.org/donate.
